

W-S Art Group Sponsors Show by Norman Daly

Willard Straight Art Gallery | Cornell University

Cornell Bulletin | Spring 1945

THE CORNELL BULLETIN

W-S Art Group Sponsors Show By Norman Daly

A collection of watercolors by Norman Daly, assistant professor in the College of Architecture, is currently shown in the Music and Art Room of Willard Straight.

The show, sponsored by the Art Committee, contains not only local subjects, but landscapes of Paris, Nice and the Western United States. Some of the paintings are from the Associated American Artists in New York, with which Mr. Daly is connected. He has also had work shown in the International Exhibition of Water Colors and the American Annual at the Art Institute in Chicago.

Mr. Daly has studied at the University of Colorado, Ohio State University, the Graduate Institute of Fine Arts at New York University, and Paris.
