

Exhibit Includes Ithacan's Work

An iron assemblage, entitled "Construction Number Eighteen," a work of Norman D. Daly of 110 N. Quarry St., Cornell professor of art, is included in the Rochester Memorial Art Gallery's current exhibit.

The Rochester show, called "In Focus: A Look at Realism in Art" is an historical survey of art from the Renaissance to the present.